The Upbuilding of a Community

Depends on the amount of money in circulation in that community. Money hid away in bureau drawers, trunks and other places is that much money taken from active circulation in the community. Deposited in the First National Bank it gets right back into circulation, giving you the opportunity to make more money for yourself because of the increased volume of business made possible by increased volume of money in circulation. Commercial and savings accounts solicited.

Opening Day's Events
Witnessed By Hundreds

The First Day of the Mid-Summer Horse Show Starts in Great Style.
Program Surpasses Anything in the Past. Today's Events Given Below.

(Thursday's Daily.)
With ideal weather, the Second Mid-Summer Horse Show opened up in grand style out at Laurel Park yesterday afternoon.
People from all over the South and some from the North, who came to Hendersonville for this occasion, were seen all over the field, in their gay attire for the Horse Show.

There were horses of every variety and description out at the Park yesterday. In several incidents it was a very close decision by the judge, Dr. F. A.
Cambell of New York, as to which horse deserved the blue ribbon.

The management deserves great credit for the manner in which the show is carried on. The program is an interesting one from first to last.

Today's events promises to even surpass those of yesterday, and the crowds will be much larger, as many arrived on the evening train last night and the noon train today, to witness the last two days of the show.

This is undoubtedly the gayest part of Hendersonville's season. With the broad boulevard walks thronged with hundreds of the gayest of the "fair sex" and the cities main through fares, is the scene of the finest horse flesh in the United States, all of which go to make a grand spectacle to the sight seeing public, in the city of Hendersonville this week.

One of the brilliant closing events of the Horse Show will be the German given in Hotel Gates ball room Friday night. This has always been the source of the greatest pleasure among the young people visiting in the city and the anticipation for the occasion is rising at a high rate this season.

gram, W. S. Ray.

With the grand championship event the second day of the midsummer Horse Show closed in splendid array. The enthusiasm of the week ran at its highest pitch during the events of yesterday.

Hundreds of new visitors were seen out at Laurel Park, together with those who have been in regular attendance since the beginning of the show.

While the winning of the blue ribbons were pretty well divided between the horses of various cities, yet Asheville possibly can claim the greatest number. Hendersonville horses held their own, but not a large number were entered in the events of yesterday.

Among the most exciting of yesterday's events were the pony races and jumping contests. The closing event or championship class was won by Mr. Frank Burgess, of Greer, S. C., with his thoroughbred, Cash Boy. This horse was the general favorite among the spectators.

Today's horseback tournament and novelty races will bring to a close the second Mid-summer Horse Show in Hendersonville.

The coronation ball at Hotel Gates tonight will conclude the events of the big Horse Show and the indications are that the event is going to be a brilliant success.

The following are the awards

SERIOUS ENGINE EX-PLOSION AT BREVARD
Brevard, Aug. 26.—In an explosion of a chemical engine while answering a fire alarm yesterday morning, Jim Aiken, a well known colored man, was killed almost instantly and several firemen seriously injured.
Among the injured are: J. W.
Chapman, laundryman, leg broken in two places; J. A. Galloway, policeman and chief of fire department, badly bruised; J. W.
Smith, barber, bruised, and O. B.
Wilson, drug clerk, seriously bruised. The injured ones will recover.

The wagon crowded with firemen and going at a rapid rate, overturned in rounding a corner and the explosion followed with result stated.

General regret is expressed on account of the death of Jim Aiken, who was highly esteemed by everyone here, both white colored. As a mark of respect to him all the stores and offices here were closed for awhile this morning.

EXCITING RUN-AWAY ON BROAD STREET.

While on his way to Laurel Park Retreat to get some baggage yesterday, Mr. Joe Hollingsworth came near receiving severe bodily injuries from the effects of a runaway scrape. He was driving one of the Hendersonville transfer company's wagons when one of the front wheels suddenly rolled off. This frightened the horse in such a manner as to start him down the street at a rapid pace, dragging Hollingsworth, who was caught in the lines, for some twenty feet.

Lucky for him the lines broke and the horse continued on his wild journey. Mr. Hollingsworth received several bad bruises but was seen out on the street this morning by his friends he being a little sore but none the worse after his miraculous experience of yesterday.

The wagon was considerably smashed up and the harness was badly torn. The horse was bruised on the leg in several places.

"Speaking of automobile highways the road between this city and Hendersonville isn't half bad," says the Asheville Citizen. And the Citizen man knows, for he was one of the Cocke party who came over this road Wednesday to attend the Horse Show. We are glad they were pleased with the Henderson end of the line.

Now for a united pull to carry the proposition for concrete side-walks throughout the city—one of its greatest needs.

The Horse Show is over until next year and then—

A largely attended meeting of the Henderson County Teachers' Association was held at the court house today. The discussions were interesting and appropriate to the occasion.
